Rescue dogs in action

See rescue dogs in action in downtown Glendale for a fundraiser that allows participants to be part of real rescue demonstrations.

"It's a Bear Hunt" on Feb. 25 will benefit fallen Glendale police Officer Brad Jones' family. It is on 58th Drive between Myrtle and Palmyra avenues in downtown Glendale. Arizona Search Dogs will be conducting a live search for people.

The work done by these dogs involves reward and play-type incentives so each person will receive a bear and then the victims will reward the dogs with a bear once they are found. The bears have been donated by Bears & More, a downtown Glendale shop.

Participants will need to register, sign a waiver and pay a $10 registration fee. Check-in begins at 7:30 a.m. with the first hunt beginning at 8:30. Each person will have about 10 to 15 minutes to hide along the street and alleys before the dogs are released to find them.

In addition to the live search, raffle prizes will be offered. PetSmart has donated a $100 gift card.

They bought a foreclosed home in October large enough for their family but they were unable to pay to fix the heating and cooling unit.

Selected from more than 100 nominations, they were among the eight families who benefited from Hobaica's 2011
